Dear Parents and Dancers,

Welcome to summer at the studio! It's warming up outside and we hope you all are staying cool through this hot spell.

Our evening classes are underway and the summer day programs and intensives are just around the corner. We've included important information to help you and your dancer have a great summer experience. Check out our check lists and tips and let us know if you have questions. If you haven't already, there's still time to register for an evening class, day program, or intensive. Click here to take a look and sign up.

We're also pleased to share some special team news- The TPDA competition team recently returned from the DanceMakers Inc. National competition in Myrtle Beach. We couldn't be more proud of their artistry, poise and showmanship. We are thrilled that TPDA earned the coveted title of Most Technical Studio. Way to go dancers and our faculty that train them!
